Redmond Way Improvements

The Redmond Way improvements project was designed to improve transit reliability and pedestrian connections to transit.

The project constructed a center median on Redmond Way, extended the westbound right-hand turn lane at 132nd Avenue Northeast, provided a sidewalk and planter strip along the north side of Northeast Redmond Way and improved intersections at 132nd Avenue Northeast and 140th Avenue Northeast.

Mode
Bus

Highlights
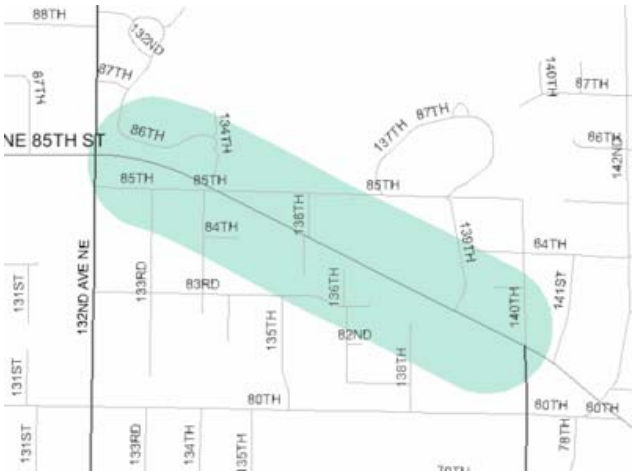
Construction completed: Fall 2007

Location: Northeast Redmond Way between 132nd Avenue N.E. and 140th Avenue N.E.

Budget: $2.4 million

Funding partners: Sound Transit, City of Redmond

Planning partners: Sound Transit, City of Redmond, King County Metro

Consultants & contractors
Final design: City of Redmond
Construction management: City of Redmond
Construction: Dennis R. Craig Construction


---